

CITY ITEMS.

Mr. Thomas G. West, who was so seriously sick a few weeks ago, that his life was despaired of, is improving rapidly. He sits up for hours at a time and takes an occasional drive. It is thought that with care his complete recovery is but a question of time.

Mr. Walter M. Clark, of 1115 Jackson street, is indisposed.

Little William Gregory, of 1115 Jackson street, is suffering from an attack of congestion of the lungs.

Miss Marion M. Hadley left the city Thursday night for Dallas, Tex., to visit Mrs. Blunt. After spending the summer there she will return to Nashville, from whence she will go to Florence, Ala., to take up her work as teacher of higher mathematics and pedagogy.

Mrs. Susie Good and her sister, Miss Emma James, of 414 Fifteenth avenue, North, spent last Sunday at La-vergne.

Prof. J. H. Kelly, of Columbia, was in the city last Saturday en route to Johnson City to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M., which convened the first of the week.

Mr. A. L. Good, of 414 Fifteenth avenue, North, spent a few days in Chattanooga last week with relatives and friends of his boyhood days.

Mrs. Anna Barnes, of 917 Warren street, who has been ill for some time, is unable to leave her bed.

Mrs. J. Blaine Boyd, of Fourteenth avenue, North, is sick.

Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Rev. C. H. Clark, pastor, will carry out their annual picnic up the Cumberland Tuesday, July 9.

Mrs. A. W. Davis and daughter, after spending a delightful week with parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Jackson, returned to Tusculum, Ala., their home, last Saturday.

Mr. G. L. Jackson, Jr., is home after a session spent at Talladega College, Talladega, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Caruthers and daughters, Naomi and Ruth, of Tusculum, Ala., are with Rev. and Mrs. prominent in society circles of Memphis, is in the city, visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Williams is the daughter of Mrs. Lytleton Jones.

Dr. Lightfoot West has been somewhat indisposed during the present week.

Miss Cornelia Young will entertain in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Boyd and Miss Hattie Mal Andrews, of Chattanooga, to-night at the home of her mother on Eighth avenue, North, G. L. Jackson, 707 Lea avenue.

Mrs. Julia Williams, the estimable wife of Sir Austin W. Williams,

Mrs. Ellen Tate, mother of Mrs. W. S. Ellington, of Seventeenth avenue, North, who has been visiting her daughter for the past two weeks, left the city Tuesday morning for her home in Memphis.

Mrs. Mary E. Smith is now visiting her son, Richard M. Smith, in Chicago. Before her return she will visit her brother, M. F. Womack, at Xenia, Ohio.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and Sunday School, Rev. Spencer Jackson, pastor, will have an outing at Greenwood Park on Wednesday, June 26. It is expected that their friends will be present in large numbers.

Miss Mary Dunson, of Ninth avenue, North, has completely recovered from the indisposition that affected her last week.

Miss Bessie Williams, a student of Fisk University, spent a few days with Miss Mamie L. Copeland, of 8 North Hill street. Miss Williams left Saturday for her home, Meridian, Miss.

Mrs. Florence Henderson, of Birmingham, Ala., is in the city visiting her mother and friends.

Rev. William Haynes, of Sylvan Street Baptist Church, officiated at two weddings last week. On Tuesday evening he united in matrimony M. Thomas Wilson and Miss Anna Winston at his home. On Friday at the residence of the groom, corner Eleventh and Russell streets, he married Mr. David Murray and Miss Mary Clark.

Miss Ethel Spence, of the mailing department of the Baptist Publishing House, was slightly indisposed the first of this week.

Daisy Fredella Thomas, the little daughter of Fred D. Thomas, has gone to Bowling Green, Ky., to spend her summer vacation with her grandfather, Mr. Berry Thurman, who recently paid her a visit and carried her back with him. She will be gone seven or eight weeks.

NEED PEOPLE Find it a hard undertaking to get together at one time the best of first-class clothing. Under our liberal plan you buy the best and don't miss the money while paying for them. You only pay $1.00 per week or $5.00 per month. You can easily make your payments with the small amounts you usually waste.

MONARCH CLOTHING COMPANY,

403 Church St. Opp. Maxwell House.
4-19-07 tt

The Star Restaurant,

316 Jo Johnston Avenue.

Meals at all hours. Open Day and Night. Furnished Rooms for Rent by Day or Week, 409 Gay Street. AM SUMNER, Proprietor. Neatness is our Motto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will leave the city in a few days for Beersheba Springs, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. Wm. N. Hill, of 801 Ewing avenue, is indisposed this week.

Mr. Julius C. Cage, of Morgan City, La., and son of the late ex-Senator Thomas A. Cage, spent a few hours in the city this week en route to Cincinnati, where he will spend the summer.

Misses Beatrice Hudson and Mary Lou Clower, of Birmingham, Ala., who have been attending Oberlin, are spending a few days in the city this week, the guests of Miss Lady Emma Louise Phillips, of Twelfth avenue, North. The young ladies after visiting the points of interest in and around the city, left for Birmingham early this morning.

Miss Beatrice L. Flanders, of Montgomery, Ala., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Martin, of Hynes street, for several days, left the city Thursday for Hot Springs, Ark. Miss Flanders will spend the summer at this famous resort, returning to this city in the fall to attend Fisk University, where she will complete her college course.

Mr. E. T. Page and his mother have moved from Fogg street to their new home on Fourteenth avenue, North.

Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Deberry, of Patterson street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy.

Miss Beatrice Hill, of 801 Ewing avenue, who has been indisposed for a few days, has rapidly improved and is able to be out again.

Miss Willie H. Andrews, of 710 Ewing avenue, is expecting her aunt, Mrs. Mamie Morton, in a short time.

Miss Reba Marie Lathan, who has been attending Fisk, left Tuesday night at 11:30 for her home in Jackson, Miss. Miss Lathan stopped with her relatives, the Misses Shorter, at 1803 Church street, while in the city.

Mrs. N. J. Armstrong, of Clarksville, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Killebrew, of Waverly, left for her home Wednesday.

Miss Tennie Kemper entertained Miss Alcia Rapier, of Fisk University, whose home is in Florence, Ala., last Tuesday. Miss Kemper will repay Miss Rapier's visit next summer. Those present were Misses Young, Rapier, Kemper, and Messrs. Nelson, Sumner and A. Stith, of Chicago. Lunch was served at four o'clock. Dancing and card playing were the leading features of the evening.

Mrs. Kizzie Hannah entertained Sunday, June 9, Mrs. Dr. Coleman, of Bessemer, Ala., from four o'clock to six at her residence, 1719 State street. After the time had been half consumed all retired from the parlor to the dining-room, where they were served a dainty menu. The evening was delightfully spent by all. Those present were Misses Tennie Kemper, Lizzie Stockell, Nannie Kemper and Mrs. Mattie Coleman, Mrs. Kate Wilson, Mrs. Annie Frierson, Mrs. Minnie Parker, Mr. B. Douglass, Mrs. Hannah.

Miss Lillian Lawrence, of Eleventh avenue, North, left the city last Sunday morning to spend her vacation in Springfield, Tenn.

Mr. W. W. Hadley, of Sixteenth avenue, North, is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Ella McLemore will leave the city Saturday for her home at Pelham Manor, N. Y.

Mr. John H. Kelly, Jr., who is connected with the National Baptist Publishing House, will leave the city on Monday next for Little Rock, Ark., where he will lead to the altar on Wednesday, the 26th inst., Miss Annie May Belle Winfrey. The marriage ceremony will be performed in the First Congregational Church in that city.

Mr. Fred J. Ewing, "The Little Giant," will visit Knoxville at the time of the annual session of the Grand Lodge K. of P. Mr. Ewing has been a member of the Order for some three or more years and is now V. C. of Damon Lodge.

Miss Eleanor Battle, of Blank street, is in the clerical department of the Baptist Publishing House.

Mrs. Mary Crockett, of Morgan street, who had poor health a short time ago, has improved rapidly of late. She attended services at Mt. Olive Baptist Church last Sunday morning.

Mrs. James R. Levy and little daughter Camille have returned to their home in Florence, S. C., after having spent a few days visiting Mrs. Levy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harris, of Seventeenth avenue, North. Mrs. Levy leaves this early in order to prepare for a trip to Baltimore and other Eastern cities next month.

Master Wilson Campbell, of Shelbyville, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Baker, of 1504 Fourteenth avenue, North.

Miss Maggie Beard has gone to St. Louis to spend the summer.

GREENWOOD PARK

4 JULY 4

OLD FASHIONED

BARBECUE

All Kinds of Amusements,
Sham Battle, etc.

ADMISSION FOR JULY 4, = 10 CENTS

Preston Taylor.

Telephone 896.

TAYLOR & CO.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

CARRIAGES FOR HIRE.

449 Fourth Avenue, North,

Nashville, - - Tenn.

TRY

M. G. Coles & Co.,
STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES.

ONLY THE BEST STOCK OF GOODS KEPT AT LOWEST CASH PRICES.

Try Our 15 Cts. Coffee, the best on the market for the money. All coffees fresh roasted each day. When in need of first class groceries telephone

Main 2866,

901 Second Ave., S.

Prompt attention given all orders. Goods delivered free.

Normal, after which they will visit friends in Kentucky.

Mrs. Redmon, of Franklin, was in the city last week to attend the Fisk commencement. She also visited the Globe office.

The members of Mt. Olive are preparing to send their pastor, Dr. Clark, on a summer tour.

Miss Magnolia Daniels, who was here from Columbia to attend the Johnson-Bowser wedding, left this week for Mount Eagle to visit her mother.

Mrs. M. Caruthers, who has been under treatment in the City Hospital, has returned to her home on Ewing avenue.

Mrs. Jas. Coffey, of Ewing avenue, is sick.

Miss B. S. Oliver, of Kansas City, Mo., left Thursday for home. She has been visiting Mrs. Kittle Ware, of Ewing ave.

The friends of Master Willie T. Cannon in this city will be pained to learn that he was badly hurt last week by being thrown by a mule.

Miss Minnie Hillman, of 307 Eleventh avenue, North, is still confined to her room.

Mr. Everett Bonds has recovered.

Mr. Wilbur Bonds spent Sunday in Murfreesboro.

Miss Georgia L. Hadley, who for some time was connected with the mailing department of the National B. Y. P. U., is in the proof-reading room of the Baptist Publishing House.

Send Your Family Washing

—TO—

MOORE'S
HAND LAUNDRY.

SHIRTS A SPECIALTY.

505 Fourth Ave., North.

6-7-4

Jordan School of Millinery.

THOROUGH INSTRUCTION IN MILLINERY.

All kinds of Flowers made for Decorations, Floral Designs and Hats. For further information, apply

1004-Second Avenue, South-1004.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

LOUIS ROBERTSON, brother of deceased BOB ROBERTSON, is now representing and is duly authorized to collect all undue bills for the following firms:

OLINE & GORDON, Shoes.
VARLEY & BAUMAN, Clothing.

We hope you will settle all your accounts promptly with Mr. Robertson, so as to close his brother's business.

Thanking you all in advance for your prompt settlement. You may find Mr. Louis Robertson at either of the above-named firms or address him,

LOUIS ROBERTSON,
623 Webster street, City.